DUPED GIRL ILL AND DESERTED

Yale, Okla., Sept. 24.—Racked by the pains of inflammatory rheumatism until she fancied a vision of another world, Nellie Neasby, 15 years old, lying in a log hovel in a swamp by the river side, made confession of the temptation that had led her from her home near Sallisaw and related the story of a few weeks of wandering with a married man whose wife had previously deserted him. Samaritan-like, good women of the neighborhood nursed the frail little creature until life's pink came again to her cheeks and then sent her home a child fraught with much worldly wisdom.

Her tempter is Andrew Horton and for him officers are searching. He deserted her in the cabin when she began in her semi-delirium to tell of the events of their lives during a fortnight.

From Sallisaw the two eloped and went to Guthrie, she said, and there remained for a few days. Picking up a dilapidated house boat on the Cimarron river near that city, they set sail down stream with scant clothes and provisions. The boat anchored near the farm of N. S. Spencer, a few miles from Yale. Going ashore Horton and the girl took up their abode in a deserted log house that had been built for negro cotton pickers. For days they had dipped into the water and slept on wet bed clothes. When the girl began to suffer with rheumatism, Horton was compelled to call assistance. Kind women cared for her and to them she told her story.

Mrs. A. C. Laughlin from Waco, Tex., who has been visiting Mrs. Geo. A. Truitt several days, left this morning for Guthrie, her future home.

Dr. Erb returned this morning from Grundy, Iowa, where he has been on a month's vacation and visit with homefolks.

ADA HAS FIVE STRONG BANKS

Oklahoma State Bank is New One;
J. W. and Durwood Hays,
President and Cashier;
W. H. Ebey, V.-Pres.

CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK.

Special to Evening News.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 25.—The secretary of state duly and according to law has issued a banking charter to the incorporators, J. W. Hays, F. S. Hout, J. P. Crawford, B. H. Epperson, W. D. Hays, W. H. Ebey, R. W. Simpson and C. W. Floyd, all of Ada, to establish the Oklahoma State Bank of Ada, capital $25,000.00.

There has been an under current of information some time that the above named substantial business citizens of this county were contemplating the organization of a strong state bank.

Col. J. W. Hays, president of the Citizens National Bank is the principal director of the new banking enterprise. The majority of associates are those who have been associated with him in the business of the Citizens National.

Thus the city of Ada has now five banking institutions.

The fact that the Citizens National bank directors and stockholders with only two or three additions, have been enabled during these times without assistance from their National bank holdings in the Citizens, to put $25,000.00 in cash in a state bank, is very emphatic proof that the new bank will be one of the most substantial ones in the state.

The organization of a large state bank by the Citizens National bank gentlemen affords almost positive proof that they will presently liquidate their National bank, surrendering the charter and converting the business over to the Oklahoma State bank.

Notwithstanding, the capital of the state bank is only one-half of that of the Citizens National, the fact that practically the identical stockholders and officers constitute the personnel of the new bank emphasizes that the Oklahoma State bank will in every respect be as strong and quite as well conducted as the Citizens National, than which there is not a sounder institution in the state.

The fact that the Citizens National can liquidate is very positive indication of the very healthy manner in which its affairs have been conducted. The fact that its holders could start another strong bank without interfering with the capital or assets of their National bank proves their strength financially.

The new bank will begin its career under most favorable auspices. The bank's officers are: J. W. Hays, president; W. H. Ebey, vice president; D. W. Hays, cashier; W. A. Ellison, assistant cashier.

Than Mr. Ebey, one of the new additions, elected vice president, there is no safer or more conservative business citizen and respected gentleman in Ada.

Mr. Ellison, the assistant cashier, has established a favorable reputation for gentlemanly and courteous business deportment since his residence in Ada.

HASKELL GOES TO CHICAGO

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 24.—Gov. C. N. Haskell left at 5 p. m., today on a Santa Fe train for Chicago, accompanied by State Treasurer J. A. Menefee. They go to confer with the National committee and Mr. Bryan with reference to the charges made against the governor by President Roosevelt and W. R. Hearst. A thorough investigation of the charges are to be made.

Haskell to Speak in Ohio.

The governor announced that he would return to Oklahoma before going to Indiana and Ohio on the campaign tour. He stated, however, that the tour will not commence until Oct. 5, when he will deliver his first Ohio address at the county fair in Ottawa, his old home. The governor stated that he would make no additional statement relative to the Roosevelt-Hearst charges at present.

were no developments at democratic headquarters today with regard to the charges that have been made against Gov. Haskell, treasurer of the committee, it was stated by National committeemen tonight that some definite word would be received from Gov. Haskell within the next forty-eight hours whether he would resign or remain on the committee and permit the charges against him to become an issue throughout the rest of the campaign.

National committeemen here declare that it is not solely a question of the veracity of the charges against Haskell, but of the political effect of having a man on the committee against whom charges of such character have been made.

It is learned, however, that, notwithstanding the attitude of many of the National committeemen, the whole question of Gov. Haskell remaining on the committee rests primarily with Mr. Bryan and National Committeeman Mack, and that nothing will be done until Mr. Bryan has made a careful investigation of the charges and given the fullest consideration to the facts.

KILLED WITH PAPER CUTTER.

His Stenographer Holds His Victim Who Had a Gun.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 24.—W. L. Greer, a well-known collector of Little Rock, is in jail here charged with killing James W. Reneau, a brakeman, also of this city, in Greer's office this afternoon. It is charged that Greer stabbed Reneau with a paper cutter. He was cut in ten places and died almost instantly in Greer's office. A coroner's jury tonight held that Reneau was killed by Greer, although no one testified to having seen him do the stabbing, "while the deceased was held by Miss Cora Davidson," Greer's stenographer, and recommended that Greer be held without bail. The stenographer testified that she seized and held Reneau's hand, which held a gun, while the two men were on the floor grappling with each other. The trouble between the two arose over a collection of $76.40.

FRISCO TRAIN WRECKED.

Carthage, Mo., Sept. 24.—A Frisco passenger train, running at full speed, left the track on high curve a mile west of Carthage this morning and the engine and five coaches rolled down the fifty-foot embankment to the brink of Spring River.

The engineer and fireman jumping on the wrong side were crushed to death by the engine, which turned over twice in its descent of the sharp slope. The fifty or more passengers in the coaches were imprisoned during the terrible ordeal of the shaking, crashing tumble down the embankment. Thirty-six were severely injured.

THAT TEXT-BOOK CONTRACT.

Considerable complaint has arisen in consequence of the practice of school book dealers relative to the exchange of books under the contract entered into on the part of the state recently and various school book publishers.

These complaints are mostly due to the fact that dealers have refused to exchange the books adopted for the books formerly in use, in some instances, and also because of their refusal to exchange books of different grades.

The Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 24.—The injunction brought by J. Luther Langston, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, to restrain the board of directors from taking charge of his office and seizing his books and papers because of an alleged charge of insubordination, was dissolved by Judge Clark today. Langston said tonight that the board was not big enough to remove him, but that he would submit the proposition to a vote of the labor unions as to whether he should be deposed.

the contract price, but also requires the exchange of books of different grades. Consequently, a contract the terms of which were not in keeping with these provisions would be absolutely null and void.

The Oklahoma City, however, is inclined to the belief that it is the dealers and not the contract, which is at fault in this matter. Either through ignorance of the law or selfish interest, they are refusing to exchange books of different grades, and in some instances, make exchanges at any price. In doing so they are wantonly violating the law, and are liable to prosecution.

The text-book act of the late legislature is one of the most complete and wholesome measures of this kind ever enacted. It specifically provides for an exchange of old books for new, and for the exchange of books of different grades, whether new or old, and also effectually prevents sharp practices on the parts of dealers. If, because its terms are not familiar to the general public, the dealers are seeking to take an unfair advantage of the text-book buying public at this time, they should be given the limit of the law. And in this connection it may be said that it wouldn't be a bad idea if the several county attorneys of the state would interest themselves in this matter just at this time, to the end that all attempted hold-ups may be checked in their incipency. —Oklahoman.

Be Submitted to Unions.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 24.—The injunction brought by J. Luther Langston, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, to restrain the board of directors from taking charge of his office and seizing his books and papers because of an alleged charge of insubordination, was dissolved by Judge Clark today. Langston said tonight that the board was not big enough to remove him, but that he would submit the proposition to a vote of the labor unions as to whether he should be deposed.

PRESS COMMENT.

Mr. Taft has started out on his speech-making tour, notwithstanding his announcement, at the beginning of the campaign, that he would engage in no such undignified thing. Just following in Bryan's footsteps again, as it were.—Oklahoman.

Parents should not forget the fact that the laws of the state make it compulsory upon their part to send their children to school at least four months in the year. And remember, the sooner the children are in school the better for them.—Wapanucka Press.

If every farmer will build a drag and use it on the road adjoining his property after each and every heavy rain it will not be very many months until this section of the state would be able to boast of mighty good dirt roads. It is no more than each farmer owes to his own interest and to the general good to do this. The work is done at a time when nothing else can be done and it will be found profitable from a selfish standpoint.—Denison Herald.

Cotton Picking contest.

Taylor, Tex., Sept. 24.—On the Charlie Brandenburg farm, three miles south of Taylor, Tuesday, two negro men, for a wager of $15, broke the county's record for cotton picking in one day. Beginning at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, Stephen Murray, weighing 175 pounds, and Will Wilson, weighing 162 pounds, commenced picking. They continued through the noon hour, not stopping for dinner and weighed in at 6 o'clock. Murray picked 1,262 pounds and Wilson 1,252.

Mr. Brandenburg paid them 65c per 100 for picking and Murray realized $23.20 for his day's work. Both men were sick yesterday as a result of the hard day's work, Wilson being unable to leave his bed.

HASKELL DEFIES FLYNN.

Oklahoma Republican Runs Like a Whipped Pup, Says Governor.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 24.—Governor Haskell sent to a Guthrie newspaper today an interview denouncing Dennis T. Flynn, republican candidate for the United States senate. Governor Haskell was of the opinion that Flynn had been boasting that Haskell's recent absence from the state was to avoid meeting Flynn on the stump. Governor Haskell said in part:

"Just as I expected, a man who was cowardly enough to own a newspaper and hide behind a hired, lying editor, was the very man whom I expected would run like a whipped pup as long as I was in the state, and then go to blowing as soon as I was absent for a week. Now, if you have got your courage up, name a dozen dates and places between now and election day where you will meet me in joint debate anywhere in Oklahoma. Now, will you keep on dodging like a whipped pup or will you come out in the open like a man?"

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the disease portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds, it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Five Proposition Before Voters.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 24.—While most people are aware that there is to be a general election this fall, and that on November 3, they will be given an opportunity to cast their ballots for national, state and legislative officers, it is doubtful if a very large number know that there are five other matters to be voted on at the same time. These matters are of the greatest importance, and the problems involved are deserving of special thought and study, before election day arrives. Five propositions are to be submitted to the people for decision, in accordance with legislation enacted by the last legislature. These propositions are: First, shall the state dispensary system be continued; second, shall the Torrens land system be adopted; third, shall that part of the enabling act, which requires the capital of the state to remain at Guthrie until 1913 be abrogated; fourth, shall the state adopt the New Jerusalem idea of a capital city, and fifth, shall the school lands be sold. The first proposition involves the question of whether the dispensary system is a success and should be continued. The Torrens land system provides all land that the state shall guarantee all land titles. The third and fourth propositions will determine whether the state capital is to be moved immediately, and whether it is to be laid out in a New Jerusalem plan of an entirely new town, with the capitol building and other state institutions. The last proposition which provides for the sale of the school lands is just now more discussed than any other.

CHICKASAWS PROTESTING.

Their Legislature Framing Measures Secretly.

Tishomingo, Ok., Sept. 24.—Committees of the Chickasaw legislature are this week drafting several important bills and Governor Douglas H. Johnston is preparing a special message, all of which are to be presented upon the re-convening of the legislature next Monday. The nature of the bill has not been disclosed, but it is intimated that they treat of subjects that may conflict with laws enacted by the state legislature.

The governor's message is being prepared secretly, and is supposed to contain recommendations for action of the tribe in resisting the taxation of homesteads and the reinstatement of 1,200 claimants who were denied enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw and Choctaw nations.

Ardmore for Commission Form.

Ardmore, Ok., Sept. 24.—The board of freeholders elected to write a new charter for this city has finished its labors and the proposed charter was filed this afternoon. It provides for a commission form of government, with ward representation on the board of commissioners, and submits to the voters as a separate proposition whether the office of chief of police shall be made appointive or elective.

Dines With Negro.

Muskogee, Ok., Sept. 24.—The most important incident of the congressional campaign in the Third district occurred today when C. E. Creager, republican candidate, went to Taft, a negro town, where he went to a hotel and publicly dined at a table with a negro. C. E. Dorris, agent for the Midland Valley railroad at Taft, was dining at the hotel and Creager and the negro came in and sat down at the table with him. Dorris is a southerner and in a boiling rage he arose from the table and denounced Creager in bitter words and left the hotel.

The incident has brought on a storm of indignation in the district where the white population is largely of southern people.

BRYAN TALKS TAFT

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—After a memorable day in the history of campaigning in this state, Mr. Bryan arrived in this city tonight at 7:15 o'clock from Dayton, where he stopped several hours en route from Columbus. His train, which made the run as a special at the rate of 68 miles an hour, was gaily decorated with flags and bunting placed there at the urgent request of employees of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad. Accompanying Mr. Bryan were Judge Judson Harmon, democratic nominee for governor; State Chairman Finley and a big escort from Cincinnati.

As the train carrying the distinguished Nebraskan pulled into the station through a gauntlet of red fire, thousands of throats sent up a mighty yell of "Hurrah for Bryan." The progress of Mr. Bryan from the railroad station to the hotel was a continuous ovation.

The reception accorded the democratic candidate on his way from Columbus here, was a remarkable one. Large crowds turned out all along the line, but at Dayton so great were the crowds that he was compelled to deliver two extra speeches. He was showered with flowers and greeted with vociferous applause.

In his speeches here tonight Mr. Bryan said:

"As this is the home of my opponent I desire to take occasion to express my high appreciation of his character and accomplishments. I think that I pay him a higher compliment in assuming that he is able to conduct his own campaign than the president does in contesting with him the leadership of the party in the campaign. As Mr. Taft referred to my record, I feel that it is only fair that I should make a brief reply. It is perfectly legitimate that both the public and private records of candidates should be brought under inspection, for the private record is as much an index to a man as his public acts. Mr. Taft and I have records and they are necessarily a part of the campaign. In some respects Mr. Taft has been more fortunate than I. He has had opportunity to hold office and to show his administration of official duties. He has held appointive office for nearly half his life, and during a considerable part of the time the office was conspicuous. As a United States judge as governor of the Philippines, and as secretary of war, he has been before the public and yet who will say that he could have secured the republican nomination on his record? It was the powerful support of the president that made him the nominee of his party, and the president seems to feel that the exigencies of the case require that the full support of the administration shall be given to Mr. Taft's candidacy. I have not held office to any great extent.

"Four years in congress covers my official experience. I began life as a young lawyer, practiced for a few years in Illinois and then went to Nebraska. I had no rich or powerful friends to aid me. Whatever distinction I have gained has been gained in the advocacy of the policies of government which I have deemed best for the people, and yet, I think that you will agree with me that I have been reasonably successful. I was nominated for the presidency by a national convention of my party and received the votes of 6,500,000 people. Notwithstanding my defeat, I was again nominated and again received practically the same vote. After a lapse of eight years I have been nominated the third time, the nomination coming from the rank and file of my party and coming with a degree of unanimity that indicates that the principles which I have been advocating are acceptable to the party. He calls attention to things that I have advocated, but he does not give you a full list of them. I have advocated tariff reform for 18 years, and still do so. I have lived long enough to see the republican party, frightened by the growth of tariff reform sentiment into making a promise of immediate revision, and Mr. Taft himself has been driven to confess that the present schedules are indefensible.

"I have advocated the income tax for something like 28 years and have lived to see Mr. Taft finally advocate it. I have advocated the election of senators by direct vote of the people for 18 years, and rejoice to welcome Mr. Taft to its advocacy, although he only expresses a personal inclination toward it. I have advocated the ultimate independence of the Filipinos and I have rejoiced to find that in this campaign he admits there is no other settlement of the question. He says that I favored the free coinage of silver. It is true. He might also have told you that Mr. McKinley voted for free coinage of silver in 1878; that the republican national convention in 1896 pledged itself to international bimetallicism and that Mr. McKinley's first important act after taking the oath of office was to send a commission to Europe to ask other nations to join us in restoring bimetallicism.

"We insisted that the country needed more money and we point to the fact that increased prosperity has come with a larger currency. The unexpected discoveries of gold have saved the people, and the money question is no longer an issue because of this increase in the nation's money. His attempt to resurrect that issue is a confession that he is unable to meet the issues of the present time.

"He accuses me of favoring government ownership, but he forgets that both he and President Roosevelt have threatened the railroads with government ownership if they do not consent to effective regulation, and this is substantially the position that I have taken except that I have less faith than he has that the railroads will consent to effective regulation. I have been urging regulation for some 20 years, while it is a new subject to him. His attempt to drag in the question of ownership is another confession that he is not prepared to meet the issues.

"I have been opposing the trusts ever since I have been in public life, and I am sorry that while he has accepted the democratic position on several questions, he still refuses to accept our party's position on this subject. Mr. Taft does not stand for a single reform that has not been advocated by democrats before he took up the reforms; or to make it more personal, he has not advocated a reform that I have not advocated earlier, and it is hardly fair for him to say that he can enforce my reforms better than I can myself. If he is going to make his fight on the ground that he is a reformer, he will have to confess that he is an imitator, but as he will make his fight as the representative of those interests which are responsible for the evils which, according to Mr. Taft, have crept into the government, I will not accuse him of borrowing his policies from us, and I will promise not to follow in his footsteps."

KERN CONDEMNS ROOSEVELT

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 24.—"I would not mouth such charges against the meanest man in the republican party," said John W. Kern, candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket today. He was referring to President Roosevelt's letter to William Jennings Bryan concerning the charges made against Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma.

"Mr. Roosevelt will find it quite impossible by the raising of side issues and the muddling of the water to divert the minds of the people from the question. It must be decided by their votes in November."

Mr. Kern declared the president had abandoned his original charges against Gov. Haskell and had taken up a criticism of his official acts to cover his own embarrassment over his failure to work reforms in his own part.

"Mr. Roosevelt's last fulmination as to Gov. Haskell only proves that his attack was premature and uncalled for," said Mr. Kern. "No such an assault was ever before made upon the chief executive of a sovereign state by the president of the United States. His original charge of criminality is abandoned and he now contents himself with a criticism of the governor's official acts. So far as I am concerned, the incident is closed until some evidence is brought forward to substantiate the original charges."

"Mr. Roosevelt will not be permitted to divert the attention of the American people from the record of his party by such by-plays as this. The republican party in this campaign will be judged not by what Mr. Roosevelt has said or Mr. Taft now says, but by the record made by it in defying the will of the people and choking to death all the reforms proposed for their relief."

DUPED GIRL ILL AND DESERTED

Yale Okla Sept 24—Racked by the pains of inflammatory rheumatism until she fancied a vision of another world Nellie Nease, 15 years old lying in a log hotel in a swamp by the river side made confession of the temptation that had led her from her home near Silasaw and related the story of a few weeks of wandering with a married man whose wife had previously deserted him. Summarized like good women of the neighborhood nursed the frail little creature until life's pink came again to her cheeks and then sent her home a child fraught with much worldly wisdom.

Her tempter is Andrew Horton and for him officers are searching. He deserted her in the crown when she began in her semi-delirium to tell of the events of their lives during a fortnight.

From Silasaw the two eloped and went to Guthrie she said and there remained for a few days. Picking up a dilapidated house boat on the Cimarron river near that city they set sail down stream with scant clothes and provisions. The boat anchored near the farm of N. S. Spencer a few miles from Yale. Going ashore Horton and the girl took up their abode in a deserted log house that had been built for negro cotton pickers. For days they had dipped into the water and slept on wet bed clothes. When the girl began to suffer with rheumatism Horton was compelled to call assistance. Kind women cared for her and to them she told her story.

Mrs. A. C. Laughlin from Waco, Tex. who has been visiting Mrs. Geo. A. Thruett several days left this morning for Guthrie her future home.

Dr. Eib returned this morning from Grundy Iowa where he has been on a month's vacation and visit with homefolks.

ADA HAS FIVE STRONG BANKS

Oklahoma State Bank is New One;
J. W. and Durwood Hays,
President and Cashier;
W. H. Ebey, V.-Pres.

CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

Special to Evening News.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 25.—The secretary of state duly and according to law has issued a banking charter to the incorporators, J. W. Hays, F. S. Haupt, J. P. Crawford, B. H. Epperson, W. D. Hays, W. H. Ebey, R. W. Simpson and C. W. Floyd, all of Ada, to establish the Oklahoma State Bank of Ada, capital $25,000.00.

There has been an under current of information some time that the above named substantial business citizens of this county were contemplating the organization of a strong state bank.

Col. J. W. Hays president of the Citizens National Bank is the principal director of the new banking enterprise. The majority of associates are those who have been associated with him in the business of the Citizens National.

Thus the city of Ada has now five banking institutions.

The fact that the Citizens National bank directors and stockholders with only two or three additions have been enabled during these times without assistance from their National bank holdings in the Citizens to put $25,000.00 in cash in a state bank is very emphatic proof that the new bank will be one of the most substantial ones in the state.

The organization of a large state bank by the Citizens National bank gentlemen affords almost positive proof that they will presently liquidate their National bank surrendering the charter and converting the business over to the Oklahoma State bank.

Notwithstanding the capital of the state bank is only one-half of that of the Citizens National the fact that practically the identical stock holders and officers constitute the personnel of the new bank emphasizes that the Oklahoma State bank will in every respect be as strong and quite as well conducted as the Citizens National than which there is not a sounder institution in the state.

The fact that the Citizens National can liquidate is very positive indication of the very healthy manner in which its affairs have been conducted. The fact that its holders could start another strong bank without interfering with the capital or assets of their National bank proves their strength financially.

The new bank will begin its career under most favorable auspices. The banks officers are J. W. Hays president, W. H. Ebey vice president, D. W. Hays cashier, W. A. Ellison assistant cashier.

Than Mr. Ebey one of the new additions elected vice president there is no safer or more conservative business citizen and respected gentleman in Ada.

Mr. Ellison the assistant cashier has established a favorable reputation for gentlemanly and courteous business deportment since his residence in Ada.

HASKELL GOES TO CHICAGO

Guthrie Ok Sept 24—Gov. C. N. Haskell left at 5 p. m. today on a Santa Fe train for Chicago accompanied by State Treasurer J. A. Menefee. They go to confer with the National committee and Mr. Bryan with reference to the charges made against the governor by President Roosevelt and W. R. Hearst. A thorough investigation of the charges are to be made.

The governor announced that he would return to Oklahoma before going to Indiana and Ohio on the campaign tour. He stated however that the tour will not commence until Oct. 5 when he will deliver his first Ohio address at the county fair in Ottawa his old home. The governor stated that he would make no additional statement relative to the Roosevelt-Hearst charges at present.

were no developments at democratic headquarters today with regard to the charges that have been made against Gov. Haskell treasurer of the committee it was stated by National committeemen tonight that some definite word would be received from Gov. Haskell within the next forty-eight hours whether he would resign or remain on the committee and permit the charges against him to become an issue throughout the rest of the campaign.

National committeemen here declare that it is not solely a question of the veracity of the charges against Haskell but of the political effect of having a man on the committee against whom charges of such character have been made.

It is learned however that notwithstanding the attitude of many of the National committeemen the whole question of Gov. Haskell remaining on the committee rests primarily with Mr. Hays and National Committeeman Mack and that nothing will be done until Mr. Hays has made a careful investigation of the charges and given the fullest consideration to the facts.

KILLED WITH PAPER CUTTER.

His Stenographer Holds His Victim Who Had a Gun.

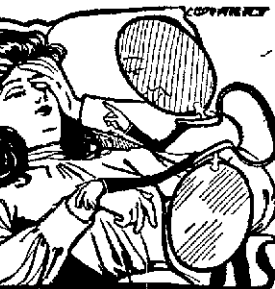

Little Rock Ark Sept 24—W. L. Greer, a well known collector of Little Rock is in jail here charged with killing James W. Reneau a brakeman also of this city in Greer's office this afternoon. It is charged that Greer stabbed Reneau with a paper cutter. He was cut in ten places and died almost instantly in Greer's office. A coroner's jury tonight held that Reneau was killed by Greer although no one testified to having seen him do the stabbing while the deceased was held by Miss Cora Davidson. Greer's stenographer and recommended that Greer be held without bail. The stenographer testified that she seized and held Reneau's hand which held a gun, while the two men were on the floor grappling with each other. The trouble between the two arose over a collection of $76.40.

THAT TEXT-BOOK CONTRACT.

Considerable complaint has arisen in consequence of the practice of school book dealers relative to the exchange of books under the contract entered into on the part of the state recently and various school book publishers.

These complaints are mostly due to the fact that dealers have refused to exchange the books adopted for the books formerly in use in some instances and also because of their refusal to exchange books of different grades.

The Oklahoma is not familiar with the terms of the contract entered into by the text-book commission and the book publishing houses but it is loath to believe that it in any particular fails to comply with the terms of the act of the late legislature providing for a text-book commission and a uniform system of text-books. This act not only expressly requires the exchange of old books for the books adopted at a price not less than 50 per cent of the contract price, but also requires the exchange of books of different grades. Consequently a contract the terms of which were not in keeping with these provisions would be absolutely null and void.

The Oklahoma however is inclined to the belief that it is the dealers and not the contract which is at fault in this matter. Either through ignorance of the law or selfish interest they are refusing to exchange books of different grades and in some instances make exchanges at any price in doing so they are wantonly violating the law and are liable to prosecution.

The text-book act of the late legislature is one of the most complete and wholesome measures of this kind ever enacted. It specifically provides for an exchange of old books for new and for the exchange of books of different grades whether new or old and also effectually prevents sharp practices on the part of dealers. If, because its terms are not familiar to the general public the dealers are seeking to take an unfair advantage of the text-book buying public at this time they should be given the limit of the law. And in this connection it may be said that a would-be bid idea at the several county attorneys of the state would interest themselves in this matter just at this time to the end that all trumped hollap may be checked in their incompetency.—Oklahoman

Langston said tonight that the order was not big enough to remove him but that he would submit the proposition to a vote of the labor unions as to whether he should be imposed

Mr. Brandenburg paid them 61c per 100 for picking and Murray realized $23.20 for his day's work. Both men were sick yesterday as a result of the hard day's work. Wilson being unable to leave his bed.

HASKELL DEFIES FLYNN.

Oklahoma Republican Runs Like a Whipped Pup, Says Governor.

Guthrie, Ok. Sept. 24.—Governor Haskell sent to a Guthrie newspaper today an interview denouncing Dennis T. Flynn, republican candidate for the United States senate. Governor Haskell was of the opinion that Flynn had been boasting that Haskell's recent absence from the state was to avoid meeting Flynn on the stump. Governor Haskell said in part:

"Just as I expected a man who was cowardly enough to own a newspaper and hide behind a hired lying editor, was the very man whom I expected would run like a whipped pup as long as I was in the state, and then go to blowing as soon as I was absent for a week. Now, if you have got your courage up name a dozen dates and places between now and election day where you will meet me in joint debate anywhere in Oklahoma. Now will you keep on dodging like a whipped pup or will you come out in the open like a man?"

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, seriously diseased. It is almost always hidden away little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac or Heart Nerve—simply needs and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail and the stomach and kidneys also have less same controlling power.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Proposition Before Voters.
Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 24.—While most people are aware that there is to be a general election this fall, and that on November 3, they will be given an opportunity to cast their ballots for national, state and legislative officers, it is doubtful if a very large number know that there are five other matters to be voted on at the same time. These matters are of the greatest importance, and the problems involved are deserving of special thought and study, before election day arrives. Five propositions are to be submitted to the people for decision, in accordance with legislation enacted by the last legislature. These propositions are: First, shall the state dispensary system be continued; second, shall the Torrens land system be adopted; third, shall that part of the enabling act, which requires the capital of the state to remain at Guthrie until 1913 be abrogated; fourth, shall the state adopt the New Jerusalem idea of a capital city, and fifth, shall the school lands be sold. The first proposition involves the question of whether the dispensary system is a success and should be continued. The Torrens land system provides all land titles. The third and fourth propositions will determine whether the state capital is to be moved immediately, and whether it is to be laid out in a New Jerusalem plan of an entirely new town, with the capitol building and other state institutions. The last proposition which provides for the sale of the school lands is just now more discussed than any other.

Their Legislature Framing Measures Secretly.
Tishomingo, Ok., Sept. 24.—Committees of the Chickasaw legislature are this week drafting several important bills and Governor Douglas H. Johnston is preparing a special message, all of which are to be presented upon the re-convening of the legislature next Monday. The nature of the bill has not been disclosed, but it is intimated that they treat of subjects that may conflict with laws enacted by the state legislature.

The governor's message is being prepared secretly, and is supposed to contain recommendations for action of the tribe in resisting the taxation of homesteads and the reinstatement of 1,200 claimants who were denied enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw and Choctaw nations.

Ardmore, Ok., Sept. 24.—The board of freeholders elected to write a new charter for this city has finished its labors and the proposed charter was filed this afternoon. It provides for a commission form of government, with ward representation on the board of commissioners, and submits to the voters as a separate proposition whether the office of chief of police shall be made appointive or elective.

Dines With Negro.
Muskogee, Ok., Sept. 24.—The most important incident of the congressional campaign in the Third district occurred today when C. E. Creager, republican candidate, went to Taft, a negro town, where he went to a hotel and publicly dined at a table with a negro. C. E. Dorris, agent for the Midland Valley railroad at Taft, was dining at the hotel and Creager and the negro came in and sat down at the table with him. Dorris is a southerner and in a boiling rage he arose from the table and denounced Creager in bitter words and left the hotel.

The incident has brought on a storm of indignation in the district where the white population is largely of southern people.

BRYAN TALKS TAFT

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—After a memorable day in the history of campaigning in this state, Mr. Bryan arrived in this city tonight at 7:15 o'clock from Dayton, where he stopped several hours en route from Columbus. His train, which made the run as a special at the rate of 68 miles an hour, was gaily decorated with flags and bunting placed there at the urgent request of employees of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad. Accompanying Mr. Bryan were Judge Judson Harmon, democratic nominee for governor; State Chairman Finley and a big escort from Cincinnati.

As the train carrying the distinguished Nebraskan pulled into the station through a gauntlet of red fire, thousands of throats sent up a mighty yell of "Hurrah for Bryan." The progress of Mr. Bryan from the railroad station to the hotel was a continuous ovation.

The reception accorded the democratic candidate on his way from Columbus here, was a remarkable one. Large crowds turned out all along the line, but at Dayton so great were the crowds that he was compelled to deliver two extra speeches. He was showered with flowers and greeted with vociferous applause.

In his speeches here tonight Mr. Bryan said:

"As this is the home of my opponent I desire to take occasion to express my high appreciation of his character and accomplishments. I think that I pay him a higher compliment in assuming that he is able to conduct his own campaign than the president does in contesting with him the leadership of the party in the campaign. As Mr. Taft referred to my record, I feel that it is only fair that I should make a brief reply. It is perfectly legitimate that both the public and private records of candidates should be brought under inspection, for the private record is as much an index to a man as his public acts. Mr. Taft and I have records and they are necessarily a part of the campaign. In some respects Mr. Taft has been more fortunate than I. He has had opportunity to hold office and to show his administration of official duties. He has held appointive office for nearly half his life, and during a considerable part of the time the office was conspicuous. As a United States judge as governor of the Philippines, and as secretary of war, he has been before the public and yet who will say that he could have secured the republican nomination on his record? It was the powerful support of the president that made him the nominee of his party, and the president seems to feel that the exigencies of the case require that the full support of the administration shall be given to Mr. Taft's candidacy. I have not held office to any great extent.

"Four years in congress covers my official experience. I began life as a young lawyer, practiced for a few years in Illinois and then went to Nebraska. I had no rich or powerful friends to aid me. Whatever distinction I have gained has been gained in the advocacy of the policies of government which I have deemed best for the people, and yet I think that you will agree with me that I have been reasonably successful. I was nominated for the presidency by a national convention of my party and received the votes of 6,500,000 people. Notwithstanding my defeat, I was again nominated and again received practically the same vote. After a lapse of eight years I have been nominated the third time, the nomination coming from the rank and file of my party and coming with a degree of unanimity that indicates that the principles which I have been advocating are acceptable to the party. He calls attention to things that I have advocated, but he does not give you a full list of them. I have advocated tariff reform for 28 years, and still do so. I have lived long enough to see the republican party, frightened by the growth of tariff reform sentiment into making a promise of immediate revision, and Mr. Taft himself has been driven to confess that the present schedules are indefensible.

"I have advocated the income tax for something like 28 years and have lived to see Mr. Taft finally advocate it. I have advocated the election of senators by direct vote of the people for 18 years, and rejoice to welcome Mr. Taft to its advocacy, although he only expresses a personal inclination toward it. I have advocated the ultimate independence of the Philippines and I have rejoiced to find that in this campaign he admits there is no other settlement of the question. He says that I favored the free coinage of silver. It is true. He might also have told you that Mr. McKinley voted for free coinage of silver in 1873; that the republican national convention in 1896 pledged itself to international bimetalism and that Mr. McKinley's first important act after taking the oath of office was to send a commission to Europe to ask other nations to join us in restoring bimetalism.

"We insisted that the country needed more money and we point to the fact that increased prosperity has come with a larger currency. The unexpected discoveries of gold have saved the people, and the money question is no longer an issue because of this increase in the nation's money. His attempt to resurrect that issue is a confession that he is unable to meet the issues of the present time.

"He accuses me of favoring government ownership, but he forgets that both he and President Roosevelt have threatened the railroads with government ownership if they do not consent to effective regulation, and this is substantially the position that I have taken except that I have less faith than he has that the railroads will consent to effective regulation. I have been urging regulation for some 29 years, while it is a new subject to him. His attempt to drag in the question of ownership is another confession that he is not prepared to meet the issues.

"I have been opposing the trusts ever since I have been in public life, and I am sorry that while he has accepted the democratic position on several questions, he still refuses to accept our party's position on this subject. Mr. Taft does not stand for a single reform that has not been advocated by democrats before he took up the reforms; or to make it more personal, he has not advocated a reform that I have not advocated earlier, and it is hardly fair for him to say that he can enforce my reforms better than I can myself. If he is going to make his fight on the ground that he is a reformer, he will have to confess that he is an imitator, but as he will make his fight as the representative of those interests which are responsible for the evils which, according to Mr. Taft, have crept into the government, I will not accuse him of borrowing his policies from us, and I will promise not to follow in his footsteps."

KERN CONDEMNS ROOSEVELT

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 24.—"I would not mouth such charges against the meanest man in the republican party," said John W. Kern, candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket today. He was referring to President Roosevelt's letter to William Jennings Bryan concerning the charges made against Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma.

"Mr. Roosevelt will find it quite impossible by the raising of side issues and the muddling of the water to divert the minds of the people from the question. It must be decided by their votes in November."

Mr. Kern declared the president had abandoned his original charges against Gov. Haskell and had taken up a criticism of his official acts to cover his own embarrassment over his failure to work reforms in his own part.

"Mr. Roosevelt's last fulmination as to Gov. Haskell only proves that his attack was premature and uncalled for," said Mr. Kern. "No such an assault was ever before made upon the chief executive of a sovereign state by the president of the United States. His original charge of criminality is abandoned and he now contents himself with a criticism of the governor's official acts. So far as I am concerned, the incident is closed until some evidence is brought forward to substantiate the original charges."

"Mr. Roosevelt will not be permitted to divert the attention of the American people from the record of his party by such by-plays as this."

"The republican party in this campaign will be judged not by what Mr. Roosevelt has said or Mr. Taft now says, but by the record made by it in defying the will of the people and choking to death all the reforms proposed for their relief."

Occasionally he had such sharp twinges that he could hardly refrain from crying out. Bending and straightening would always intensify his suffering. The kidney secretions were also irregular in action. These symptoms led him to believe that his kidneys were disordered and learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, he procured a box at G. M. ## JOHN D. RINARD

DUPED GIRL ILL AND DESERTED

Yale Okla Sept 24—Racked by the pains of inflammatory rheumatism until she fancied a vision of another world Nellie Nease, 19 years old lying in a log hotel in a swamp by the river side made confession of the temptation that had led her from her home near Sallisaw and related the story of a few weeks of wandering with a married man whose wife had previously deserted him. Summarizing like good women of the neighborhood nursed the frail little creature until life pink came again to her cheeks and then sent her home a child brought with much worldly wisdom.

Her tempter is Andrew Horton and for him officers are searching. He deserted her in the crowd when she began in her semi-delirium to tell of the events of their lives during a fortnight.

From Sallisaw the two eloped and went to Guthrie she said and there remained for a few days. Picking up a dilapidated house boat on the Cimarron river near that city they set sail down stream with scant clothes and provisions. The boat anchored near the farm of N. S. Spencer a few miles from Yale. Going ashore Horton and the girl took up their abode in a deserted log house that had been built for negro cotton pickers. For days they had dipped into the water and slept on wet bed clothes. When the girl began to suffer with rheumatism Horton was compelled to call assistance. Kind women cared for her and to them she told her story.

Mrs. A. C. Laughlin from Waco Tex. who has been visiting Mrs. Geo. A. Truitt several days left this morning for Guthrie her future home.

Dr. Erb returned this morning from Grundy Iowa where he has been on a month's vacation and visit with homefolks.

ADA HAS FIVE STRONG BANKS

Oklahoma State Bank is New One;
J. W. and Durwood Hays,
President and Cashier;
W. H. Ebey, V.-Pres.

CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

Special to Evening News.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 25.—The secretary of state duly and according to law has issued a banking charter to the incorporators, J. W. Hays, F. S. Haupt, J. P. Crawford, B. H. Epperson, W. D. Hays, W. H. Ebey, R. W. Simpson and C. W. Floyd, all of Ada, to establish the Oklahoma State Bank of Ada, capital $25,000.00.

There has been an under current of information some time that the above named substantial business citizens of his count were contemplating the organization of a strong state bank.

Col. J. W. Hays president of the Citizens National Bank is the principal director of the new banking enterprise. The majority of associates are those who have been associated with him in the business of the Citizens National.

Thus the city of Ada has now five banking institutions.

The fact that the Citizens National bank directors and stockholders with only two or three additions have been enabled during these times without assistance from their National bank holdings in the Citizens to put $25,000.00 in cash in a state bank is very emphatic proof that the new bank will be one of the most substantial ones in the state.

The organization of a large state bank by the Citizens National bank gentlemen affords almost positive proof that they will presently liquidate their National bank surrendering the charter and converting the business over to the Oklahoma State bank.

Notwithstanding the capital of the state bank as only one-half of that of the Citizens National the fact that practically the identical stock holders and officers constitute the personnel of the new bank emphasizes that the Oklahoma State bank will in every respect be as strong and quite as well conducted as the Citizens National than which there is not a sounder institution in the state.

The fact that the Citizens National can liquidate is very positive indication of the very healthy manner in which its affairs have been conducted. The fact that its holders could start another strong bank without interfering with the capital or assets of their National bank proves their strength financially.

The new bank will begin its career under most favorable auspices. The banks officers are J. W. Hays president, W. H. Ebey vice president, D. W. Hays cashier, W. A. Ellison assistant cashier.

Than Mr. Ebey one of the new additions elected vice president there is no safer or more conservative business citizen and respected gentleman in Ada.

Mr. Ellison the assistant cashier has established a favorable reputation for gentlemanly and courteous business deportment since his residence in Ada.

A thorough investigation of the charges are to be made.

The governor announced that he would return to Oklahoma before going to Indiana and Ohio on the campaign tour. He stated however that the tour will not commence until Oct. 5 when he will deliver his first Ohio address at the county fair in Ottawa his old home. The governor stated that he would make no additional statement relative to the Roosevelt-Hearst charges at present.

Haskell treasurer of the committee it was stated by National committeemen tonight that some definite word would be received from Gov. Haskell within the next forty-eight hours whether he would resign or remain on the committee and permit the charges against him to become an issue throughout the rest of the campaign.

National committeemen here declare that it is not solely a question of the veracity of the charges against Haskell but of the political effect of having a man on the committee against whom charges of such character have been made.

It is learned however that notwithstanding the attitude of many of the National committeemen the whole question of Gov. Haskell remaining on the committee rests primarily with Mr. Bryan and National Committeeman Mack and that nothing will be done until Mr. Bryan has made a careful investigation of the charges and given the full consideration to the facts.

KILLED WITH PAPER CUTTER.

His Stenographer Holds His Victim Who Had a Gun.

Little Rock Ark Sept 24—W. L. Greer, a well known collector of Little Rock is in jail here charged with killing James W. Reneau a brakeman also of this city in Greer's office this afternoon. It is charged that Greer stabbed Reneau with a paper cutter. He was cut in ten places and died almost instantly in Greer's office. A coroner's jury tonight held that Reneau was killed by Greer although no one testified to having seen him do the stabbing while the deceased was held by Miss Cora Davidson. Greer's stenographer recommended that Greer be held without bail. The stenographer testified that she seized and held Reneau's hand which held a gun, while the two men went on the floor grappling with each other. The trouble between the two arose over a collection of $76.40.

FRISCO TRAIN WRECKED.

Carthage Mo Sept 24—A Frisco passenger train running at full speed left the track on a sharp curve a mile west of Carthage this morning and the engine and five coaches rolled down the fifty foot embankment to the bank of Spring River.

The engineer and fireman jumping on the wreck, were crushed to death by the engine which turned over twice in its descent of the sharp slope. The fifty or more passengers in the coaches were imprisoned during the terrible ordeal of the shaking, crashing tumble down the embankment. Thirty-six were severely injured.

THAT TEXT-BOOK CONTRACT.

Considerable complaint has arisen in consequence of the practice of school book dealers relative to the exchange of books under the contract entered into on the part of the state recently and various school book publishers

These complaints are mostly due to the fact that dealers have refused to exchange the books adopted for the books formerly in use in some instances and also because of their refusal to exchange books of different grades

The Oklahoma is not familiar with the terms of the contract entered into by the text-book commission and the book publishing houses but it is loath to believe that it in any particular fails to comply with the terms of the act or the late legislature providing for a text-book commission and a uniform system of text-books. This act not only expressly requires the exchange of old books for the books adopted at a price not less than 50 per cent of the contract price, but also requires the exchange of books of different grades. Consequently a contract the terms of which were not in keeping with these provisions would be absolutely null and void

The Oklahoma however is inclined to the belief that it is the dealers and not the contract which is at fault in this matter. Either through ignorance of the law or selfish interest they are refusing to exchange books of different grades and in some instances make exchanges at any price in doing so they are wantonly violating the law and are liable to prosecution

The text-book act of the late legislature is one of the most complete and wholesome measures of this kind ever enacted. It specifically provides for an exchange of old books for new and for the exchange of books of different grades whether new or old and also effectually prevents sharp practices on the part of dealers. If, because its terms are not familiar to the general public the dealers are seeking to take an unfair advantage of the text-book buying public at this time they should be given the limit of the law. And in this connection it may be said that a writer in a bid idea that the several county attorneys of the state would interest themselves in this matter just at this time to the end that all attempted hollap may be checked in their incipency.—Oklahoman

Be Submitted to Unions.

Oklahoma City, Ok Sept 24—The injunction brought by Luther Langston secretary of the State Federation of Labor to restrain the board of directors from taking charge of his office and taking his books and papers because of an alleged charge of insubordination was dissolved by Judge Clint to day. Langston said tonight that the bond was not big enough to remove him but that he would submit the proposition to a vote of the labor unions as to whether he should be released

PRESS COMMENT.

Parents should not forget the fact that the laws of the state make it compulsory upon their part to send their children to school at least four months in the year. And remember, the sooner the children are in school the better for them.—Wapanucka Press

If every farmer will build a dike and use it on the road adjoining his property after each and every heavy rain it will not be very many months until this section of the state would be able to boast of mighty good dirt roads. It is no more than each farmer owes to his own interest and to the general good to do this. The work is done at a time when nothing else can be done and it will be found profitable from a selfish standpoint.—Denison Herald

Cotton Picking contest.

Taylor Tex Sept 24—On the Charlie Brandenburg farm three miles south of Taylor, Tuesday two negro men for a wager of $15, broke the county's record for cotton picking in one day. Beginning at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, Stephen Murray, weighing 175 pounds and Will Wilson, weighing 162 pounds commenced picking. They continued through the noon hour not stopping for dinner and weighed in at 6 o'clock Murray picked 1262 pounds and Wilson 1252

Mr Brandenburg paid them 67c per 100 for picking and Murray realized $23.20 for his day's work. Both men were sick yesterday as a result of the hard day's work Wilson being unable to leave his bed

HASKELL DEFIES FLYNN.

Oklahoma Republican Runs Like a Whipped Pup, Says Governor.

Guthrie, Ok Sept 24—Governor Haskell sent to a Guthrie newspaper today an interview denouncing Dennis T Flynn, republican candidate for the United States senate. Governor Haskell was of the opinion that Flynn had been boasting that Haskell's recent absence from the state was to avoid meeting Flynn on the stump. Governor Haskell said in part

"Just as I expected a man who was cowardly enough to own a newspaper and hide behind a hired lying editor, was the very man whom I expected would run like a whipped pup as long as I was in the state, and then go to blowing as soon as I was absent for a week. Now, if you have got your courage up name a dozen dates and places between now and election day where you will meet me in joint debate anywhere in Oklahoma. Now will you keep on dodging like a whipped pup or will you come out in the open like a man?"

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve weakness—nothing more. Positively not one weak heart in a hundred is in itself actually diseased. It is simply always hidden away little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac or Heart Nerve—simply needs and must have more power, more stability, more controlling more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail and the stomach and kidneys also have less controlling power.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine Dr Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, perplexing, suffering heart distress. Dr Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and ailing nerve centers. It builds it strengthens it offers real genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with ## Five Propositions Before Voters.

Guthrie, Ok Sept 24—While most people are aware that there is to be a general election this fall, and that on November 3, they will be given an opportunity to cast their ballots for national, state and legislative officers it is doubtful if a very large number know that there are five other matters to be voted on at the same time. These matters are of the greatest importance and the problems involved are deserving of special thought and study, before election day arrives. Five propositions are to be submitted to the people for decision, in accordance with legislation enacted by the last legislature. These propositions are: First shall the state dispensary system be continued second shall the forrens land system be adopted third shall that part of the enabling act which requires the capital of the state to remain at Guthrie until 1913 be abrogated fourth shall the state adopt the New Jerusalem idea of a capital city and fifth shall the school lands be sold. The first proposition involves the question of whether the dispensary system is a success and should be continued. The Totten land system provides all land titles. The third and fourth propositions will determine whether the state capital is to be moved immediately and whether it is to be laid out in a New Jerusalem plan of an entirely new town with the capitol building and other state institutions. The last proposition which provides for the sale of the school lands is just now more discussed than any other.

Their Legislature Framing Measures Secretly.

Tishomingo, Ok Sept 24—Committees of the Chickasaw legislature are this week drafting several important bills and Governor Douglas H Johnston is preparing a special message all of which are to be presented upon the re-convening of the legislature next Monday. The nature of the bill has not been disclosed but it is intimated that they treat of subjects that may conflict with laws enacted by the state legislature.

The governor's message is being prepared secretly and is supposed to contain recommendations for action of the tribe in resisting the taxation of homesteads and the reinstatement of 1200 claimants who were denied enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw and Choctaw nations.

BRYAN TALKS TAFT

Cincinnati, Sept. 24.—After a memorable day in the history of campaigning in this state, Mr. Bryan arrived in this city tonight at 7:15 o'clock from Dayton, where he stopped several hours en route from Columbus. His train, which made the run as a special at the rate of 65 miles an hour, was gaily decorated with flags and bunting placed there at the urgent request of employees of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad. Accompanying Mr. Bryan were Judge Judson Harmon, democratic nominee for governor; State Chairman Finley and a big escort from Cincinnati.

As the train carrying the distinguished Nebraskan pulled into the station through a gauntlet of red fire, thousands of throats sent up a mighty yell of "Hurrah for Bryan." The progress of Mr. Bryan from the railroad station to the hotel was a continuous ovation.

The reception accorded the democratic candidate on his way from Columbus here, was a remarkable one. Large crowds turned out all along the line, but at Dayton so great were the crowds that he was compelled to deliver two extra speeches. He was showered with flowers and greeted with vociferous applause.

In his speeches here tonight Mr. Bryan said:

"As this is the home of my opponent I desire to take occasion to express my high appreciation of his character and accomplishments. I think that I pay him a higher compliment in assuming that he is able to conduct his own campaign than the president does in contesting with him the leadership of the party in the campaign. As Mr. Taft referred to my record, I feel that it is only fair that I should make a brief reply. It is perfectly legitimate that both the public and private records of candidates should be brought under inspection, for the private record is as much an index to a man as his public acts. Mr. Taft and I have records and they are necessarily a part of the campaign. In some respects Mr. Taft has been more fortunate than I. He has had opportunity to hold office and to show his administration of official duties. He has held appointive office for nearly half his life, and during a considerable part of the time the office was conspicuous. As a United States judge as governor of the Philippines, and as secretary of war, he has been before the public and yet who will say that he could have secured the republican nomination on his record? It was the powerful support of the president that made him the nominee of his party, and the president seems to feel that the exigencies of the case require that the full support of the administration shall be given to Mr. Taft's candidacy. I have not held office to any great extent.

"Four years in congress covers my official experience. I began life as a young lawyer, practiced for a few years in Illinois and then went to Nebraska. I had no rich or powerful friends to aid me. Whatever distinction I have gained has been gained in the advocacy of the policies of government which I have deemed best for the people, and yet, I think that you will agree with me that I have been reasonably successful. I was nominated for the presidency by a national convention of my party and received the votes of 6,500,000 people. Notwithstanding my defeat, I was again nominated and again received practically the same vote. After a lapse of eight years I have been nominated the third time, the nomination coming from the rank and file of my party and coming with a degree of unanimity that indicates that the principles which I have been advocating are acceptable to the party. He calls attention to things that I have advocated, but he does not give you a full list of them. I have advocated tariff reform for 28 years, and still do so. I have lived long enough to see the republican party, frightened by the growth of tariff reform sentiment into making a promise of immediate revision, and Mr. Taft himself has been driven to confess that the present schedules are indefensible.

"I have advocated the income tax for something like 28 years and have lived to see Mr. Taft finally advocate it. I have advocated the election of senators by direct vote of the people for 18 years, and rejoice to welcome Mr. Taft to its advocacy, although he only expresses a personal inclination toward it. I have advocated the ultimate independence of the Philippines and I have rejoiced to find that in this campaign he admits there is no other settlement of the question. He says that I favored the free coinage of silver. It is true. He might also have told you that Mr. McKinley voted for free coinage of silver in 1878; that the republican national convention in 1896 pledged itself to international bimetallicism and that Mr. McKinley's first important act after taking the oath of office was to send a commission to Europe to ask other nations to join us in restoring bimetallicism.

"We insisted that the country needed more money and we point to the fact that increased prosperity has come with a larger currency. The unexpected discoveries of gold have saved the people, and the money question is no longer an issue because of this increase in the nation's money. His attempt to resurrect that issue is a confession that he is unable to meet the issues of the present time.

"He accuses me of favoring government ownership, but he forgets that both he and President Roosevelt have threatened the railroads with government ownership if they do not consent to effective regulation, and this is substantially the position that I have taken except that I have less faith than he has that the railroads will consent to effective regulation. I have been urging regulation for some 20 years, while it is a new subject to him. His attempt to drag in the question of ownership is another confession that he is not prepared to meet the issues.

"I have been opposing the trusts ever since I have been in public life, and I am sorry that while he has accepted the democratic position on several questions, he still refuses to accept our party's position on this subject. Mr. Taft does not stand for a single reform that has not been advocated by democrats before he took up the reforms; or to make it more personal, he has not advocated a reform that I have not advocated earlier, and it is hardly fair for him to say that he can enforce my reforms better than I can myself. If he is going to make his fight on the ground that he is a reformer, he will have to confess that he is an imitator, but as he will make his fight as the representative of those interests which are responsible for the evils which, according to Mr. Taft, have crept into the government, I will not accuse him of borrowing his policies from us, and I will promise not to follow in his footsteps."

KERN CONDEMNS ROOSEVELT

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 24.—"I would not mouth such charges against the meanest man in the republican party," said John W. Kern, candidate for vice president on the democratic ticket today. He was referring to President Roosevelt's letter to William Jennings Bryan concerning the charges made against Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma.

"Mr. Roosevelt will find it quite impossible by the raising of side issues and the muddling of the water to divert the minds of the people from the question. It must be decided by their votes in November."

Mr. Kern declared the president had abandoned his original charges against Gov. Haskell and had taken up a criticism of his official acts to cover his own embarrassment over his failure to work reforms in his own part.

"Mr. Roosevelt's last fulmination as to Gov. Haskell only proves that his attack was premature and uncalled for," said Mr. Kern. "No such an assault was ever before made upon the chief executive of a sovereign state by the president of the United States. His original charge of criminality is abandoned and he now contents himself with a criticism of the governor's official acts. So far as I am concerned, the incident is closed until some evidence is brought forward to substantiate the original charges."

"Mr. Roosevelt will not be permitted to divert the attention of the American people from the record of his party by such by-plays as this."

"The republican party in this campaign will be judged not by what Mr. Roosevelt has said or Mr. Taft now says, but by the record made by it in defying the will of the people and choking to death all the reforms proposed for their relief."
